Summary

As a B.Tech candidate specializing in Food Technology at NIFTEM-T, my recent internships at SIMFRA FROZEN FOODS and CMS Agro Foods have honed my expertise in food processing and market trend analysis. These experiences have solidified my proficiency in Microsoft Word and risk analysis, equipping me to navigate the complexities of the food industry.

My commitment to innovation is fueled by hands-on learning and a deep understanding of consumer preferences. Eager to contribute to a forward-thinking team, I am motivated to apply my academic knowledge and internship insights to drive growth and excellence in the realm of Food Technology.
